OBITUARY. Died, on Thursday, 21st inst, after a lingering mess of several months, Mrs. F. A. Gillastis, in the 55th year of her age.

The subject of this notice had been for several years a member of the Baptist Church, and lived in accordance with the teachings of that denomination. Her last illness had been long and protracted; but she bore it with the fortitude of a Christian, and she bore it with the fortitude of a Christian, and mover was heard to murmur on account of her af effictions. Perfectly conscious of her situation, she said a few days previous to her death, that "she was resigned to the will of the Lord, and only waited his time when He would take her to himself." She often prayed that the Lord would remove all doubts and fears from her mind, that she might be enabled to see her way more clearly. We have no doubt but He answered her prayer, and that she is now singing the song of "Moses and the Lamb" around her Father's throne in Heaven, where "the wicked cease from troubling and the weary are at rest." She leaves a large circle of relatives to meurn her loss.

Mas. Eliza Bass, late consort of Wm. J.

There

Mrs. ELIZA BRES, late consort of Wm. J.
Brem, departed this life, at the residence of her husband, on the 5th instant, in her 23d year.
It is a melancholy duty to record the death of any person whether young or old, of fresh or maany person whether young or old, of fresh or ma-ture years, in the spring time or the autumn of file. Especially is the office a mournful one when the ties of wife, mother and sister are severed by a single stroke. Such was the case when the de-nise of the subject of this notice, Mrs. Eliza Brem, was removed by death. Young in years, inexpe-zienced in life, she had not long since assumed ma-ternal responsibilities in connection with those of a wife, when she was summoned from a devoted hus-band and a little child to mansions prepared by her Lord and Master for all who are finally faithful. In the midst of the cares and solicitudes of a bright-ily begun matrimonial career Mrs. Brem has been called hence, after a brief illness, from a small household and a large circle of friends, relatives and acquaintances. She was a member of the household and a large circle of friends, relatives and acquaintances. She was a member of the Baptist Church, and by that communion was loved and esteemed. So orderly had been her deportment, so perfect her Christian character, that none ever questioned her piety while living, or allowed a momentary fear since her death to approach their minds of her happiness beyond the grave.

Dying in the triumphs of that faith which secures dife immortal, a bereaved husband may enjoy solace of richest value in the dark hours of his bereavement. To know that she is happy is a comfort exquisite in degree, invaluable as a balm to the stricken heart. It is a blessed future that renders present ills bearable. Grief may come, and with its ont ills bearable. Grief may come, and with its beavy hand, and for a time crush our joys, darken our hearts, shut out the light of hope, nip the most fragrant flowers of the heart, but the buoying thought that our loved and departed ones are hap-py forever more, breaks cheeringly in upon the soul like the light of Heaven.

It is a thought of a world-value that death is but a translation -- an easy transition from sorrow and darkness to light, life, and immortality. Such is the case, we doubt not, with the innocent child and adult christian. Such the consider, tons that mitigate the sorrows of the heart darkened by the thick cloud of bereavement. "To die the death of the righteous" is an aspira-

"To die the death of the rightcom?" is an aspira-cion that should animate us in our earthly pilgrim-age. It stirred the heart of the Psalmist, and should command our daily thoughts and constant atten-tion. Let us then eatch inspiration from the death-bed scenes of the dying christian, whether wife or child, and prepare for a reunion with them where bliss unalloyed is the portion of each forever and

THE LIVER PILLS.

The Liver Pills of Dr. M'Lane were first need by him exclusively in his own practice. So efficacious were they in all cases of Liver Complaint, that they became famous, and attracted the attention of the medical faculty, passing into general use. They get with great certainty and regularity; the patient almost immediately feels the dispersion of his disease, and is gradually restored to health. With some the effect is almost miraculous, frequently experiencing immediate relief, after having or months resorted to drugs and medicines of another description in vain. Diseases of the Liver are very common in this country, and are often frightful in character. Those who experience any of the premonitory symptoms of this dangerous and complicated disease, should at once procure a box of Dr. M'Lane's Pills, prepared by Fleming Bros. of Pittsburg, and perhaps, thereby, be saved a world

Purchasers will be careful to ask for DR. MLANE'S CELEBRATED LIVER PILLS. manufactured by FLEMING BROS., PITTSBURGH PA. There are other Pills purporting to be Liver Pills now before the public. Dr. M'Lane's genuine Liver Pills, also his celebrated Vermifuge, can now be had at all respectable drug stores. None genuine without the signature of

Are curing the Sick to an extent never before known of any Medicine.

INVALIDS, READ AND JUDGE FOR YOURSELVES JULES HAUEL, Esq., the well known perfumer, of Chestaut Street, Philadelphia, whose choice products are found at almost every toilet, says: are found at almost every toilet, says:

"I am bappy to say of your Carrasauc Pills, that I have found them a better family medicine, for common use, than any other within my knowledge. Many of my friends have realized marked benefits from them, and coincide with me in believing that they possess extraordinary virtues for driving out diseases and curing the sick. They are not only effectual, but safe and pleasant to be taken—qualities which must make them valued by the public, when they are known."

The venerable Chanceller WARMAN were

"Dr. J. C. Aven — Sir: I have taken your Pills with great benefit, for the listlessness, languor, loss of appetite, and Billous headache, which has of lake veets overtaken me in the spring. A few doses of your Pills cured me. I have used your Cherry Pectoral many years in my family for coughs and celds with unfailing success. You make medicines which care; and I feel it a pleasure to commend you for the good you have done and are doing." JOHN F. BEATTY, Esq., Sec. of the Penn. Raifrond Co., says:

The widely renowned S. S. STEVENS, M. D., of Wentworth, N. H., writes:

"Having used your Catharte Pales in my practice, I terrily from experience that they are an invaluable purgative. In cases of disordered functions of the liver, causing headsche, indigestion, costiveness, and the great variety of diseases that follow, they are a stror remedy than any other. In all cases where a purgative remedy is required, I confidently recommend these Pills to the public, as superior to any other I have ever found. They are sure in their operation, and perfectly safe—qualities which make them an invaluable article for public use. I have for many years known your Cherty Pectoral as the best Cough needlitine in the world; and these Pills are in no wise inferior to that admirable preparation for the treatment of diseases."
